Mr. Colavecchio called a point of order, objecting to the fact the paper ballots had Council members' names on them, and stating they should be blank ballots.

Mr. Pallotta deferred to Mr. Balthis. Mr. Balthis stated Council rules do call for a paper ballot. He referred to Robert's Rules of Order in that one of the main purposes for voting by ballot is secrecy. Mr. Balthis noted that Attorney General's Opinion 2011-038 has been issued that states secret ballot voting is not permitted. He further stated that Attorney General's opinions are a recommendation and not legally binding.

Mr. Colavecchio stated that the purpose of a secret ballot is to ensure there is no intimidation, so people can freely vote without fear of reprisal. Mr. Iona stated that Council was here to vote for the best candidate and not play partisan politics. Mr. Colavecchio stated that, until two years ago, the ballots had always been blank, and it was not setting a good precedent by having ballots with names on them. Mrs. Pyke asked Mr. Colavecchio if he was suggesting that Council proceed forward in a public meeting despite the Attorney General's opinion that secret ballots were not allowed. Mr. Colavecchio restated his objection to proceeding without secret ballots. Mrs. Pyke stated that balloting had been conducted in this manner for the past two years, and that up until this meeting or week, there had been no objection.

Mr. Pallotta cited his appointment to council in 2013. At that time, a secret ballot took place. That secret ballot was challenged by the Democrats arguing that secret ballots could not be used in a public meeting. In response to the challenge, the vote was taken without secret ballots and he was appointed to council. He felt that not only supported the Attorney General's opinion, but set a precedent. Mr. Pallotta stated that voting would proceed with ballots containing names.

Mr. Pallotta appointed Mr. Iula and Mr. Brillhart as tellers. They distributed paper ballots, then collected and counted them. Mrs. Pyke was elected President of Council (vote 6-5) and was sworn in by Mayor Walters.

Mrs. Pyke accepted nominations for Council Clerk. Mr. Iula nominated Jo Ann Schloz. Mr. Colavecchio nominated Dana Capriulo. Hearing no further nominations, the nominations were closed.

Mr. Colavecchio called a point of order. He stated since Council had in its possession a copy of Ms. Schloz's resume, he would like the opportunity to pass out Ms. Capriulo's resume or to say a few words about her qualifications. Mr. Colavecchio stated that Ms. Capriulo was a court reporter with the Summit County Domestic Relations Court, and had been a court reporter for 29 years. He had a concern about the timeliness of receiving minutes in the past, and stated that the best-qualified person should be elected to the position.

Ms. Schloz's community service includes serving on the Community Legal Aid Society and Save-a-Dream Foreclosure Prevention Program. Mrs. Pyke then asked if there were any questions about either candidate's resume.

Tellers Mr. Iula and Mr. Brillhart distributed paper ballots, then collected and counted them. Dana Capriulo was appointed as the new Clerk of Council (voted 6-5), was sworn in by Mayor Walters, and took her seat at the Council rail.
