Temp. Res. A-112

A resolution expressing support for Issue 16, an operating levy for the benefit of the Cuyahoga Falls Public Library and declaring an emergency.

Mrs. Ritzinger read A-112 (second reading). Mayor Robart said he believes the library is important to the community and its quality of life. He thanked Mr. Gorbach for co-chairing the levy committee with him.

Library Director Kevin Rosswurm gave a short presentation on the need for additional funding. State funding has been significantly reduced over the last five years, increasing the need for local support.

Mr. Gorbach said the Cuy. Falls Library has received many accolades on both the national and state level despite the lack of funding. It is a source of community pride. Despite the internet, the library is still an important resource for residents.

Don Nelsch (North Haven Blvd., Cuy. Falls) said the State gave Summit County $21.4 million in 2005. The county is responsible for distributing the funds to various communities. He suggested that the Cuy. Falls Library ask the county for additional money. Also, the library's books (accounting) should be open to the public.

Tom Sullivan (Tallmadge Rd., Cuy. Falls) said the library offers free meeting space for non-profit groups, free computer use for the public, and many other valuable services. Most of the people who work at the library also live in the community. He offered to help Mr. Gorbach with the levy campaign.

The Committee recommended bringing out A-112 for approval.
