Joe Brodzinski indicates the Administration and our city routinely are recognized for its services, performance or other types of recognition. The Administration wants to share those recognitions with the Council over the last week which include the Auditors' Award, Health Space Museum for the wellness program and we are the only municipality to receive that award; Mayor Robart received the top award from the Akron Chamber of Commerce, Outstanding Municipality Leadership Award; and The Crown Communities Award for project partner in Storm Management.

Scheduled legislation (second reading):

B-148	AN ORDINANCE TO APPROVE CURRENT REPLACEMENT PAGES TO THE CUYAHOGA FALLS CODIFIED ORDINANCES, AND DECLARING AN EMERGENCY.

Walter Drane updates our Ordinances and publishes them into our books. They also compare them to the State Laws which is required. This is an annual update.

The Public Affairs Committee recommended bringing out Temp. Ord. B-148
