Ms. Loza stated that the reason for this Public Affairs Committee Special Meeting is to introduce Mr. Andrew Harant, the new Director of the Cuyahoga Falls Public Library, to Council.

Mr. Harant addressed Council and outlined his vision and goal for the City's library to further connect with the community through outreach programming, partnerships, and becoming directly involved with community leaders and organizations.

Ms. Loza thanked Mr. Harant for stopping in and introducing himself to Council.

Mr. Balthis thanked Mr. Harant for taking the time to come to Council. He stated that it is great that the Library is prioritizing meeting with a community leader. When people and organizations partner together, they provide better service. He welcomed Mr. Harant to his new position and stated that Council looks forward to working with him.
