

Quirk Cultural Center

is the completely renovated former Grant Elementary School, a classic brick structure built in the early 1930s. It is now a rental facility fully operated and maintained by the Cuyahoga Falls Parks and Recreation Department. You will find Quirk Cultural Center the perfect place for wedding receptions, showers, dances, parties, and meetings. Banquet and meeting rooms are air conditioned. The large banquet room* is ideal for gatherings for up to 250 guests and includes a full kitchen. Also consider the 160 seat Newell Theatre with raised stage or the many meeting rooms available for your next gathering.

*A $100 security deposit required

Regulations

Quirk Cultural Center is a nonsmoking facility

Alcoholic Beverages

Alcoholic beverages may be served but cannot be included in the price of a ticket or sold unless the permit holder secures a liquor license from the State of Ohio and presents the license to the Parks and Recreation office. Alcoholic beverages are not permitted outside the building.

Responsible Person in Charge

The holder of the reservation's permit will be financially responsible for the condition of the facility, all equipment therein, and the conduct of the activities of the group.

Decorations

Decorations are not permitted on walls, ceilings, or doorways. Table decorations may be used if they are of fireproof materials.

Youth Groups

A responsible adult is required to secure the permit for all children and teenage groups using the facility. This same adult must be in attendance and will be held responsible for the building and the activities of the group. A minimum of 2 adults is required and at least 1 adult for every 10 children/teenagers present is the rule. An off-duty Cuyahoga Falls police officer must be hired at the expense of the renter whom shall remain present ½ hour before, during, and ½ hour after the event for all teenage groups.

Caterers

Caterers are not permitted to use the building at times other than listed on the permit.
